PRELUDE

↑WELCOME & OPENING PRAYER Rev. Andrea Haldeman

L: Gracious God, on this day we gather to remember the suffering death of Jesus. He was despised and rejected, oppressed, and afflicted, yet he was prepared to be wounded for our transgressions.

P: We come overwhelmed by the depth of Jesus' love for us, and his commitment to defeat evil, even when that meant his own suffering and his own death.

L: In his willingness to make us righteous, he poured himself out to death, even death on a cross, and so, in response to such love and sacrifice, we commit ourselves as his disciples to overcome evil with good, suffering with wholeness, and oppression with justice.
In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER & BLESSING Rev. Andrea Haldeman

God thank you for being with us in this wondering moment where we stand poised between life and death, filled to the brim with sorrow, filled with thoughts of what has been and what lies before us. Thank you for the gift of life. Thank you for our friend Jesus who was a gift to the world, a gift in each of our lives.

Comfort us even as we are shaken by the horror of these last hours. Be our friend in this time of sorrow and sustain us in the days to come.

Now Jesus, may God bless you and keep you, May the very face of God shine upon you, and be gracious to you,

May God's presence embrace you and give you eternal peace.

Amen.
